

FY15 Community Benefit Investments

LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY
HEALTH SYSTEM

$107,990,862

Unreimbursed Care

$16,852,543
Charity care and financial assistance.

$76,755,790
Costs not covered by Medicaid / Medicare reimbursements.

$14,382,529
Expected payments not received.

$25,930,589

Other Community Benefits

LUHS provides donations to other not-for-profit organizations, volunteer support, language assistance and translation services for patients and families, and health information and screenings throughout the community.

$20,816,540

Support for Health Education and Research

As an academic medical center, LUHS works in partnership with Loyola University Chicago and other universities, colleges, and high schools to educate the next generation of health care professionals, and to advance medical research.

$7,356,598

Subsidized Services Responding to Community Need

LUHS provides services in response to community needs that operate at a loss and must be subsidized by other resources.